Mid-Michigan ReSource Warehouse (MMRW) POLICIES AGREEMENT

Proper Use of Donated Product

As a Teacher, you're the only one allowed into the warehouse. You must show your ID and Warehouse Membership Card. No guest, family members or clients are allowed into the warehouse.

Payment: Payment for items is required at time of check out. MMR Warehouse accepts credit card, check, or cash. Membership fees are waived if you are employed as a teacher.

Self-Serve: MMR Warehouse is primarily a self-serve warehouse to keep costs low. We will help you get items down from our racking, but members need to be prepared to shop and load on their own. All items are sold AS IS, No returns

Please initial each rule below after reading

- _____ Your membership may use donated goods only as direct charitable donations to people in need or use in your facilities/school/classroom to help your students. Items are NOT intended for personal use at home.
- _____ You must not sell, trade, barter, or otherwise transfer any donated goods in exchange for money, property, or services. Prohibited transfers include listing the donated goods for sale or trade on websites, in stores, at flea markets, or in any similar manner.
- _____ You must not use donated goods for raffles, auctions, or any fundraising activity.
- _____ You must not accept anything of value (including voluntary donations) in exchange for the donated goods.
- _____ You must not give any donated goods to its volunteers, officers, directors, employees, or contractors for personal use.
- _____ You must not return any donated goods to the manufacturer or to any retail store.
- _____ You must not give donations to another nonprofit organization or other entity.
- _____ You must not redistribute any donated goods to any location outside of the United States (unless MMRW Warehouse through Good360 has given written permission in advance).
